

2009 Champions of Public Health Awards

Nomination Form

Sponsored by The Ohio State University College of Public Health

We invite you to identify and nominate worthy individuals who, through their professional achievements, volunteer service or civic involvement, personify the mission of the College of Public Health to advance knowledge and improve lives.

- Nominees must be an individual or organization who has made a significant contribution to the health of Ohioans.
- Individuals may be nominated posthumously, but the committee prefers nominees who are living at the time of nomination.
- For the community leader category, the college encourages nominations of volunteers as well as public health professionals.
- Individuals may come from all fields of public health.
- Submit this nomination form and a one-page nominating statement.

- You may include up to two letters of support. Letters of support are limited to one 8 ½" x 11" page each, single-spaced.

Please attach your nomination to this form and mail to:
Champions of Public Health Awards Committee
OSU College of Public Health
