Overview

The 15 credit hour undergraduate minor in Global Public Health focuses on health issues affecting populations in the US and low-to middle economic status countries worldwide.

Students complete courses that provide content relative to presenting and discussing the type and scope of public health issues, factors that contribute to existing and emerging issues, and applicable approaches to address and intervene. The program will augment and enhance many different undergraduate bachelor degree programs and expands learners' knowledge and comprehension of issues affecting humans domestically and internationally.

Competencies

Upon successful completion of the undergraduate minor in Global Public Health, students will be better prepared to:

- Compare and contrast examples of major domestic and international public health issues
- Discuss various global approaches/strategies for identification, response and intervention to address and attempt to resolve common public health issues
- Identify political, cultural, behavioral and socio-economic factors related to global public health issues
- Work effectively in international settings
- Adapt to diverse cultures, perceptions and approaches
- Discuss major currents of global change and issues they raise
- Communicate across cultural and linguistic boundaries
- Comprehend the international dimension of one's field of study.

Credit hours required 15

Transfer credit hours allowed No more than one half of the credit hours required on the minor

Overlap with the GE No more than 6 credit hours can overlap between the GE and a minor

Overlap with the major and additional minor(s) The minor must be in a different subject than the major. Each minor completed must contain a minimum of 12 hours distinct from the major and/or additional minors

Grades required

- Minimum of a C- for a course to be listed on the minor
- Minimum 2.00 cumulative point-hour ratio (GPA) required for the minor
- Course work taken Pass/Non-Pass cannot count on the minor
- No more than 3 credit hours of courses graded S/U may count toward the minor

Approval Required

Students who wish to declare the minor are required to email cph@cph.osu.edu with the subject line "Declare Global Public Health minor". An academic advisor in the College will then complete a minor program form and email it to the student and copy the student's academic advisor. The academic advisor can then declare the minor.

Changing the minor

Once the minor program is filed in the college office, any changes must be approved by the academic unit offering the minor. <http://cph.osu.edu/>

Declaring the minor

The minor should be declared as soon as possible, however it must be declared by the time of applying for graduation.
