

Bachelor of Science in Public Health Major and Pre-Major General Education (GEN) Requirements

For students entering The Ohio State University Autumn Semester 2022 and beyond

The following degree requirements are effective autumn semester 2022 and apply to you if you began your career as a regularly enrolled college student at Ohio State autumn semester 2022 or later. Consult your advisor before making enrollment decisions.

Your Responsibility as a Student

You are responsible for knowing the published policies governing the curriculum you are pursuing, as well as the regulations and procedures of the college and the university. The Bachelor of Science in Public Health curriculum guide should be used in conjunction with the degree planning information and college policies, published online, at <https://cph.osu.edu/students> and in consultation with your academic advisor.

General College Requirements

- You must earn a minimum of 121 credit hours to earn a Bachelor of Science in Public Health degree. You will complete general college and major requirements, General Education (GE) requirements, and elective course work to reach a minimum of 121 credit hours.
- Remedial courses (courses at the 10XX-level or below, and English 1109) and credit hours earned in repeated course work do not count toward the 121 credit hour minimum requirement for the degree.
Note that you can take both "versions" of cross-listed courses (e.g., Comparative Studies 2214/Sexuality Studies 2214); however, since the two versions are in fact the same course, only one may count toward your minimum degree hours.
- You may need to plan a program of more than 121 credit hours if you wish to complete specific Pre-Professional degree requirements.

- A minimum of 30 credit hours earned through regular course enrollment at Ohio State.

In addition, you must have:

- A cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.5 for all work attempted at Ohio State.
- A graduation application submitted to the College of Public Health.

General Education (GE) Requirements

Ohio State's General Education (GE) is designed to develop and refine qualities, abilities and characteristics that prepare its students to be engaged, resilient and adaptable citizens and leaders for life. It aims to develop in students an engagement with and an ability to apply a range of important modes of thought and inquiry. Through it, students will examine significant aspects of the human condition in local, state, national and global settings today and in the foreseeable future.

The curricular requirements are organized into eleven categories under three headings: Bookends, Foundations and Thematic Pathways (Themes). Details regarding completion of these requirements, including lists of approved courses, are found on pages 3-4.

You must earn at least a D in a course for it to fulfill a GE requirement. Courses taken on a pass/non-pass or satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis cannot be used to fulfill GE requirements. (A note regarding transfer credit: a grade of D or D+ will not transfer to Ohio State unless it was earned at another public college or university in the state of Ohio.)

Requirements for the Major

You must earn at least a C- in a course in order for it to be listed on your major. If you earn a D+, D, or an E in a course that is required for your major, the course cannot be counted toward the major. Courses taken on a pass/non-pass basis cannot be used on the major.

Requirements for a Minor

A minor consists of a minimum of 12 credit hours at the 2000-level and above and a maximum of 18 credit hours. 1000-level courses may not be included in a minor. No more than 3 hours of X193 course work may be included in a minor, and no more than 3 hours of courses graded "S/U" may be included in a minor. Up to 6 total credit hours of transfer credit and/or credit by examination may be counted toward a minor. A maximum of 6 credit hours on the minor may also count on the GE.

No grade below a C- will be permitted in courses constituting a minor. However, you must receive a 2.0 cumulative GPA for all minor course work. Courses taken on a pass/non-pass basis may not count toward a minor.

You may pursue more than one minor. Each minor must contain a minimum of 12 unique (non-overlapping) semester hours.

Once a minor program form is on file in the college office, any changes must be approved by the departmental (minor) advisor. Students are strongly encouraged to declare the minor and file the minor program form as early as possible; declaration of the minor and filing of the minor program form must occur at least one term prior to the graduation term.

Exclusivity of GE, Major, and Minor Courses

With the exceptions noted below, courses may not be counted on both the GE and the major. A maximum of 6 credit hours on the minor may also count on the GE. If the minor consists of more than 12 credit hours, some overlap with the major may be permitted. Consult your advisor.

Some GE courses are listed in more than one category; with the exceptions noted below, however, GE courses may not be used to fulfill more than one GE requirement.

Courses Used to Fulfill More than One Requirement

Students can apply up to two Theme courses to their major. The courses must be in different Themes (one in Citizenship and one in the "choice" Theme). Foundation courses cannot apply to the major directly but may be counted as prerequisite or major-foundational courses. No overlap is allowed between the Foundations and major coursework.

Honors Courses (indicated with an H)

In order to enroll in an honors course, you must be an honors student or have instructor permission. Check the course catalog (course bulletin) at buckeyelink.osu.edu for a full listing of honors courses.

Honors Embedded Courses (indicated with an E)

In order to enroll in an honors embedded course, you must be an honors student or have instructor permission. Check the course catalog (course bulletin) at buckeyelink.osu.edu for a full listing of honors embedded courses. Honors embedded courses are marked with an E after the course number.

GE REQUIREMENTS

GE BOOKENDS (2 credit hours)

Launch Seminar

The goal of the launch seminar is to help students develop an understanding of the purpose and structure of the GE; to help students begin to develop critical skills and habits to navigate the academic environment; and to help articulate students' academic and program goals and find opportunities to express those goals within the GE from various disciplinary perspectives.

Take Gen Ed 1201

Reflection Seminar

The goal of the reflection seminar is to help students demonstrate the intellectual and cognitive skills that prepare them to be engaged citizens and leaders for life by reflecting on a range of important modes of human thought, inquiry and expression; to help students be interculturally competent global citizens who can engage with significant aspects of the human condition in local, state, national and global settings; and to help students demonstrate skills and abilities needed for engaged citizenship and personal and professional growth.

Natural Sciences, 4 – 5 credit hours

The goal of courses in the category is to engage students in theoretical and empirical study within the natural sciences, to help students gain an appreciation of the modern principles, theories, methods, and modes of inquiry used generally across the natural sciences, and to help students discern the relationship between the theoretical and applied sciences while appreciating the implications of scientific discoveries and the potential impacts of science and technology. A laboratory (lab) component is required to complete the Natural Sciences foundation.

Environmental Public Health Specialization: A GE Biology course is recommended but students can choose any course listed below

Three-credit hour courses:

Animal Sciences 2200.01
 Earth Sciences 1110, 1110H, 1110S, 1105, 1108, 1121, 1121H, 1151
 Entomology 1350 (AU23 and later; take 1351 as the one-hour lab), 2101 (take 2102 as the one-hour lab)
 Environment and Natural Resources 2100 (take 2101 as the one-hour lab), 3000 (take 3001 as the one-hour lab)
 Horticulture and Crop Science 2200

One-hour labs:

Animal Sciences 2200.02
 Earth Sciences 1200
 Entomology 1351, 2102
 Environment and Natural Resources 2101, 3001
 Horticulture and Crop Science 2206

⁵Chemistry 1208 is the second course in a 2-course sequence with Chemistry 1206. Together, Chemistry 1206 and 1208 are equivalent to Chemistry 1210, but students will only receive GE-N Foundation: Natural Science credit after completion of Chemistry 1208. Chemistry 1206 is not a General Education course.

⁶Physics 1248 must be taken as part of a sequence with Physics 1249; together 1248 and 1249 are equivalent to Physics 1250. Note that 1248 is four-credit hours and 1250 is five-credit hours. (Also note that Physics 1249 is three-credit hours and not a GE course.)

Social and Behavioral Sciences, 3 credit hours

The goal of courses in this category is to help students analyze and apply theoretical and empirical approaches within the social and behavioral sciences, critically, including modern principles, theories, methods and modes of inquiry and to enable students to recognize the implications of social and behavioral scientific findings and their potential impacts.

GE THEMATIC PATHWAYS

All students must complete the Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World theme and choose one additional theme. Note that additional themes and courses continue to be developed. Students will have the option of choosing one 4-hour high impact practice course or two 3-hour courses to complete each theme.

Five Public Health Foundation Courses can be used to partially fulfill GE Theme requirements. Specific courses and the Themes for which they are approved are listed below:

PUBHLTH 2010	Health and Well-being
PUBHEPI 2410	Health and Well-being
PUBHEHS 3310	Lived Environments
PUBHHBP 3510	Health and Well-being
PUBHHMP 3610	Health and Well-being

Citizenship for a Diverse and Just World, 4 or 6 credit hours

The goal of courses in this category is to help students analyze concepts of citizenship, justice and diversity at a more advanced and in-depth level than in the Foundations component. More specifically:

- Successful students will integrate approaches to understanding citizenship for a just and diverse world by making connections to out-of-classroom experiences with academic knowledge or across disciplines and/or to work they have done in previous classes and that they anticipate doing in the future.
- Successful students will explore and analyze a range of perspectives on local, national or global citizenship and apply the knowledge, skills and dispositions that constitute citizenship.
- Successful students will examine notions of justice amid difference and analyze and critique how these interact with historically and socially constructed ideas of citizenship and membership within society, both within the United States and around the world.
