

2023-2024 Curriculum Guide for Master of Public Health degree program with a specialization in CLINICAL TRANSLATIONAL SCIENCE

The Master of Public Health (MPH) The MPH degree program is designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills for general and specialized applied public health practice, both in the public sector and in private sector careers related to population health. It includes courses within public health's foundation disciplines of biostatistics, environmental health science, epidemiology, health behavior & health promotion, and health services management and policy. This broad training is complemented by the more in-depth course work within the specialization including an applied practice experience and culminating experience.

Students admitted to the MPH degree program are assigned a faculty advisor who will provide guidance throughout the program. This document serves as a resource to be used by the student and the advisor in planning a program with a specialization in Clinical Translational Science (CTS) but is not inclusive of all important degree, college, and university requirements. This is not considered an on-line degree program; however, students will enroll in a combination of courses designed for on-campus in-person delivery (IP), distance learning (DL), or hybrid (HY). All students are expected to be familiar with the College of Public Health (CPH) Graduate Student Handbook http://cph.osu.edu/students/graduate/handbooks, the Graduate School Handbook https://gradsch.osu.edu/handbook and the CPH competencies: http://go.osu.edu/cphcompetencies.
